Dear Kim,

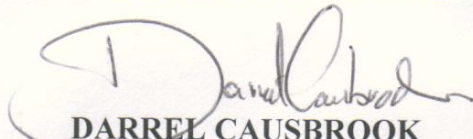

We wanted to write to you to again thank you for our wonderful office. At every stage, from the initial planning discussions, through to your fine tuning and detailed finishing you were always accessible, professional and always willing to go the extra mile for us.

Indeed, looking back over the last few months you did exceed our expectations and our office is even better than we envisaged – and we kept within our budget!

We were impressed with your co-ordination of all the different aspects of the job and with communications always well maintained throughout. Your creative approach, great ideas and experience were a tremendous asset to us.

We wish you well in all your future endeavours and have no hesitation in referring you business in the future.

Kind regards,
